Senate Votes Postal Rate Increase Bill

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP) — A bill that would increase both postal rates and the pay of federal employees has won Senate approval by an overwhelming 72-3 vote.

If enacted, it would mean a penny hike in postage for regular and air mail letters and a wage boost averaging about 10 per cent for 1.6 million government workers.

The next step is up to the House. If it takes the Senate measure as is, the bill goes to President Kennedy for signing into law. If the House balks, a joint conference would have to work out a compromise.

The House last January passed a bill designed to bring in $690 million a year more in postal revenue. But this measure does not provide for an increase for postal and other government workers.

In Thursday's debate Sen. Frank Lausche, D-Ohio, saw the two-step $1,049,000 pay hike as an effort "to buy votes" in an election year. And, Sen. A. Willis Robertson, D-Va., one of the three who voted against the bill, said it was calculated to make everybody happy except the taxpayer.

The pay raise would go into effect before the election, Robertson noted, and the postal rates rise afterward.

Sens. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., and John J. Williams, R-Del., joined Robertson in voting against the bill. Lausche was one of four senators who, while not voting, went on record against it by arranging "pairs" with other senators who favored the measure.

Most senators said they felt the 1 million classified civil service employees and the 590,000 postal workers were fully entitled to the raise, which would more than offset the $603-million-a-year revenue increase in the bill.

If the bill becomes law, it will mark the third consecutive election year in which such a raise has been voted. The 1958 legislation granted a 10 per cent boost, and the 1960 bill 7.5 per cent. The 1960 measure was vetoed by President Dwight D. Eisenhower, but he was overridden.

Sen. Olin D. Johnston, D-S.C., who steered this year's measure through the Senate, said he had White House assurances it will receive Kennedy's approval if it clears the House.

Postmaster General J. Edward Day said he was gratified by the action on the postal legislation. The one-cent increase in first class rates "will give us the basic rate structure which, for the first time in many years, will be comparable to other major postal systems in the world," Day said.

The Senate bill carries an average 5.5 per cent increase for classified employees next month, plus 4.1 per cent in January 1964. Postal workers would get 8.8 per cent next month, and 2.6 per cent in the second step.

The last postal rate increase was in 1958, when the 3-cent letter stamp in effect for a quarter of a century was raised to 4 cents.

The Senate measure would boost this to 5 cents effective next Jan. 7 and increase airmail from 7 to 8 cents. In addition, second class mailnewspapers and magazines would be boosted $27.6 million and third class, $96.2 million, both over three years.

It was the third time that proved fatal. Twice this week Hope Fedd Co. was entered and the burglar got $50 Monday and $25 Tuesday night.

Last night was the third time, but a stakeout in the building proved his undoing. The 17 year old Negro was grabbed when he entered the building and has been charged with three counts of burglary, according to Police Chief Jack Brown.

Accidents Kill 4,000 in August

CHICAGO (AP)—Motor vehicle accidents killed 4,000 persons in the United States during August, the National Safety Council reports. The toll was a record for August.

The council, in its report Thursday, said in the first eight months of this year, 25,910 persons were killed in auto accidents—another record high.

Third District Show Enters Final Two Days

The first performance of the Crenshaw Rodeo, following a parade in downtown Hope yesterday afternoon, was staged in the Coliseum last night before an estimated 2,800 fans.

Thus the western half of the Third District Show got underway with a bang and the rodeo was one of the better ones to show here in a long time. The crowd seemed very pleased with the performance.

Another large crowd is expected at tonight's rodeo and the final performance will be held Saturday night, the final day of the show.

Friday promises to be a crowded one at the midway and in the Coliseum tonight. It has been designated school day and all students from the district will be admitted to the showgrounds free of charge.

Alamo Exposition Shows which has several sideshows and 17 rides on the Midway has reduced prices. Students will be charged only half fare for all rides during the day.

In the Junior Steer and Fat Calf Show yesterday, the grand champion, "Golden Boy" was exhibited by Wesley Harley of Pencil Bluff in Montgomery County. He represented the Oden FFA Chapter.

King Slain, Warriors on Warpath

ADEN (AP)—Tribal warriors were reported marching on the Yemen capital of Sana today to crush a military uprising and avenge the claimed slaying of their king.

Middle Eastern broadcasts of undetermined origin said at least two princes of the ousted royal family were leading a planned attack on the capital of the feudal country which rebels Thursday proclaimed a republic.

In the face of widespread reports of imminent civil war, the rebel-led Sana radio asserted the revolutionary army command was still in firm control of the small but strategic country on the Red Sea.

Sana radio resumed the broadcasts after announcing Thursday night that rebel army artillery had leveled the royal palace, burying beneath the debris Imam Mohammed Al-Badr, 35, on the throne only a week after the death of his father.

While the princely emirs were reported moving toward the capital, a contender to the throne, Prince Hassan, was on his way to Yemen from his U.N. delegate's post in New York to claim the family crown.

$80 Million in Bill for Arkansas

WASHINGTON (AP) — The expenditure of more than $80 million on the Arkansas River and other water projects in Arkansas was recommended today by the Senate Appropriations Committee.

Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., a member of the committee, announced that in addition to the funds already in the House-approved public works money bill these increases were approved by the committee.

Arkansas River navigation locks and dams. An additional $600,000 to begin construction of the lower two locks. The House had allowed $2 million in planning funds.

Quachita River navigation project—an additional $15,000 to begin construction. The House had allowed $235,000 in planning funds. Gilliam Reservoir—an additional $350,000 for construction. The House had allowed $99,000 for planning.

Dierks Reservoir—$30,000 to initiate planning. The House had allowed nothing for this project. Big Lake, Mississippi County—$60,000 in planning funds. The expenditure of this amount, however, is subject to authorization of the project.

McClellan also said the committee approved these survey funds: Lee Creek, $27,000; east end Levee District, Little Rock, $12,000 and Drainage District No. 17, Mississippi County, $17,500.

He said the committee also left intact the controversial $100,000 provided by the House for the Cache River drainage project.

The bill was amended, however, to provide that the funds must be used to the extent necessary to determine the potential effect of the project on agricultural lands in its downstream reaches and along the White River.

Barricades Up for Protection

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Federal marshals set up barricades today in the building where Mississippi Gov. Ross Barnett was scheduled to show cause why he should not be held in contempt.

The governor gave no hint in advance of the hearing before the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals whether he would appear.

Two hours before the scheduled start of the hearing, federal officers blocked off most of the lobby of the federal building with plywood and rope—leaving only a corridor leading from the street entrance to the elevator.

Ike Says U. S. Has to Act in Mississippi

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP)—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower says federal laws must be enforced to admit Negro James H. Meredith as a student to the University of Mississippi.

Referring to Gov. Ross Barnett of Mississippi, Eisenhower told a news conference Thursday: "Now, here is a governor defying for a while the assistance of the National Guard, armed and paid for by the federal government, and defying the federal courts. This is absolutely unconscionable and indefensible."

Eisenhower, here for a Pennsylvania Republican fund-raising dinner, said he is positive the Kennedy administration "will do something" to require the university to admit Meredith in accordance with federal court orders.

"It will have to be done because, otherwise, the federal government and the federal judiciary will be completely defied," said the former president. "You just can't have that."

When asked about remarks by former Army Gen. Edwin A. Walker—who commanded federal troops called in 1957 in the Little Rock, Ark., integration issue—that Walker had declared himself opposed to troops in Mississippi, Eisenhower said:

"I don't know what Walker said. I don't think I know the gentleman, but I'll tell you this, don't ever believe that this federal government can afford to evade its responsibility of enforcing federal law."

"We did not have trained the additional marshals (in the Little Rock situation)—I say reserve marshals—that could come in and do this without the calling in of troops. And I promptly called them in."

Kennedy Works Up a Battle Cry

WHEELING, W.Va. (AP)—President Kennedy has worked up a clear, uncomplicated battle cry for his headlong venture into the 1962 congressional campaigns. He puts it this way: Democrats look ahead and are good for the country. Republicans look back and don't know where they're going.

Kennedy played hard on the theme at a Democratic rally in the rain here Thursday night, just as he had at Harrisburg, Pa., a week ago.

Men close to the President believe that's the main line he will take through an arduous five weeks of slumping across the land for Democratic congressional and gubernatorial candidates.

Kennedy cut short his prepared speech when rain began to soak the 10,000 who trooped to Wheeling Island Stadium for the Democratic doings. He used less than 15 of the 20 minutes set aside for him on a statewide telecast of the rally. He liked West Virginians too much, he said, to keep them out in the wet.

Kennedy recalled why he liked them so much, too. It was in West Virginia that he won a vital presidential primary victory over Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn.

"This is the place where the Democratic victory of 1960 had its start," Kennedy said, "and I am sure you tonight that it will also be the starting place for the Democratic victory of 1962."

Kennedy avoided mention of former President Dwight D. Eisenhower by name. But with almost a snarl, he said the national government in the 1950s had left West Virginia "on the beach, to decline and rot."

West Virginia, which has been in economic straits, is on the way to its best year ever, Kennedy said. He claimed for his administration a goodly share of the credit, citing defense contracts, public works, highway funds, loans and grants.

Generally, he labeled Republicans in Congress as defeatists—Democrats as progressives.

Kennedy carries his attack the weekend of Oct. 5-7 into Covington, Ky.; Cincinnati; Detroit; Flint and Muskegon, Mich.; Minneapolis, St. Paul and St. Cloud, Minn.

He'll be on the trail every weekend and sometimes during the week until election day.

Group Backs 3 Amendments

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Three proposed constitutional changes to be voted on in the November election were endorsed and one opposed Thursday by the Women's Emergency Committee for Public Schools.

The committee distributed a newsletter backing Amendment 53 and 54 and Initiative Act 1 but opposed Amendment 51.

Amendment 51 would order that no child be denied a free public education because of refusal to attend an integrated school.

Amendment 53 would maintain the current system and the Teacher Retirement System and 54 would permit use of voting machines in the state.

Contempt Hearing in U.S. Appeals Court Ignored by Barnett

People's Army Disappears From Campus

OXFORD, Miss. (AP)—A detachment of Army Engineers reached Memphis, Tenn., today to give administrative and logistic support to a force of federal marshals gathering to enforce court orders for enrollment of a Negro at the University of Mississippi.

The defiant governor of Mississippi did not show up for his contempt hearing in New Orleans before the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals at the appointed hour of 10 o'clock this morning.

But, he had not been seen in Oxford, either, and all entrances to the wooded Ole Miss campus stood free of blockades by state officers. Only six or seven police cars had been seen on campus by midmorning.

Army and Justice Department spokesmen said the 110-man Engineer unit would provide supplies, meals, administrative services and possibly arrange living quarters for the marshals.

An Army spokesman emphasized that the Engineers will have absolutely nothing to do with affairs in Mississippi. They will remain at Memphis, 50 miles north of this college town.

The Engineers—first federal troops to be ordered to any kind of duty in connection with the defiance of court orders by Mississippi's top officials—arrived at the Memphis Naval Air Station at 3 a.m. after a 200-mile overnight trip from Ft. Campbell, Ky.

Their 49-truck convoy included tractor-trailers carrying heavy equipment, tractor-drawn vans, jeeps and other vehicles.

"They have with them the capacity to set up a tent city to furnish bedding, cooking and that type of service for the marshals," said Lt. Col. T. A. Price, deputy commander of operations at Ft. Campbell.

Price said the members of the 70th Engineer Battalion, were armed because their maneuver was a mobility exercise.

Further moves in the showdown between federal and state authorities over attempts to enroll Negro James H. Meredith at the university were expected momentarily.

A highway patrol source said Gov. Barnett and Atty. Gen. Kennedy talked three times by telephone during the night and reached "a gentlemen's agreement."

The agreement, this source said, banned further attempts to enroll Meredith until Monday.

During the time this reported agreement was being negotiated, a detachment of Army Engineers moved into Memphis, ready to extend administrative and logistic support to a huge force of U.S. marshals massed at Millington Naval Air Station.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy canceled his trip to Memphis to face a contempt hearing in the U.S. Supreme Court, according to a source here.

Armed Rebellion a Possibility

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — A note Georgia publisher says the situation at Oxford, Miss., is such that federal marshals might be fired on and "you will have an armed rebellion against the United States government."

Ralph McGill, publisher of the Atlanta Constitution, said in an interview: "Certainly, the United States government will have to move with troops or whatever it takes" to see that a federal court order to admit Negro James Meredith to the University of Mississippi is carried out.

McGill was here for a speech to the Louisville Committee on Foreign Relations Thursday.

No Truce Mississippi, RFK Vows

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Justice Department, denying reports of a weekend truce between Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy and Mississippi Gov. Ross R. Barnett, declared today it will "proceed" with its plans in the University of Mississippi desegregation crisis.

Edwin Guthman, Justice Department information officer, stated the department's position after learning of reports from Mississippi that a truce had resulted from telephone conversations between Kennedy and Barnett.

"I just want to say that it's not true," Guthman told newsmen. "We intend to proceed in this matter to meet the situation as it develops."

He refused to confirm or deny that Kennedy and Barnett had been in touch by telephone during the night.

OXFORD, Miss. (AP)—Unofficial sources said today a weekend truce had been reached between Gov. Ross Barnett and Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy in the federal attempt to enroll Negro James H. Meredith in the all-white University of Mississippi.

Bolstering these reports, Mississippi's citizen army of highway patrolmen and volunteer sheriffs and police disappeared from the Ole Miss campus.

A highway patrol source said Gov. Barnett and Atty. Gen. Kennedy talked three times by telephone during the night and reached "a gentlemen's agreement."

During the time this reported agreement was being negotiated, a detachment of Army Engineers moved into Memphis, ready to extend administrative and logistic support to a huge force of U.S. marshals massed at Millington Naval Air Station.

Represented by Several Attorneys

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The chief judge of the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals, trying Gov. Ross Barnett of Mississippi for contempt, said today "this court has practically exhausted its power in the circumstances."

He referred to the court's various orders attempting to get Negro James H. Meredith enrolled as a student at the all-white University of Mississippi.

"The time has about come," said Judge Elbert Tuttle of Atlanta, "when the burden now falls on the executive branch. The court has no powers to execute orders."

Judge Tuttle addressed his comments to Burke Marshall, assistant U.S. attorney general in charge of civil rights.

The comments came at the beginning of closing arguments in a hearing at which Gov. Barnett did not appear.

The court had directed that the 4-year-old governor—who vows to go to jail rather than integrate the University of Mississippi—appear and show cause why he shouldn't be cited for civil contempt.

Previously court sources had said since the charge was civil contempt, Barnett could be tried in absentia.

Barnett has three times defied federal court orders directing that Negro James H. Meredith be enrolled at the 114 year old all-white state university.

Eight of the nine circuit judges were present for the opening of the hearing.

Chief Judge Elbert P. Tuttle of Atlanta, Ga., presided.

State Paper Is Cited by AP
MINNEAPOLIS (AP) - The Arkansas Democrat was cited by The Associated Press Managing Editors Association Wednesday for "consistently excellent cooperation" in furnishing newsphotos of Arkansas events to the AP.
Democrat Managing Editor Gene Herrington accepted the citation at the annual APME convention.
The citation said the Democrat regularly provides pictures, both spot and feature, for the AP, often before it processes them for its own use.
Specifically mentioned were aerial photos of a fire in which a family of 10 perished and a dramatic train derailment. Chief Photographer Owen Gunter took the fire picture. Glen Moon made

The Democrat was one of 46 newspapers, radio and television stations cited by the APME for outstanding contributions to the AP news report.

Air Safety Award to Oren Harris
WASHINGTON (AP) - Rep. Oren Harris (D-Ark.), has been selected to receive the Air Traffic Control Association's Medallion Award for legislative leadership in air safety.
Harris, of El Dorado, is chairman of the House Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce. The award presentation will be made at the organization's seventh annual convention in Las Vegas, Oct. 3.
The award recognizes Harris' co-authorship of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, which provided for the merging of military and civilian air traffic.

Police Fatally Wound a Negro
MEMPHIS (AP) - A Memphis police patrolman Wednesday fatally wounded a Negro man who the officer said resisted arrest during a theft investigation.
Patrolman J. N. Melton said he shot Matthew Exton, 30, of Memphis three times after Exton broke away from him, seized a rake and rushed at him swinging it as a weapon.
Melton was automatically suspended pending investigation of the incident.

Ford Motor Company warrants to its dealers, and its dealers in turn warrant to owners, as follows: that for 24 months or for 24,000 miles, whichever comes first, free replacement, including related labor, will be made by dealers of any part with a defect in workmanship or materials. Tires are not covered by the warranty; appropriate adjustments will be made by tire companies. Owners will remain responsible for normal maintenance services, routine replacement of parts, such as filters, spark plugs, ignition points, wiper blades and brake or clutch linings, and normal deterioration of soft trim and appearance items. The benefits of the warranty are available to the original purchaser and to subsequent owners of the vehicle during the time and mileage limits prescribed in the warranty.

Here is what it means to you

The new 1963 Ford-built cars and trucks are quality-engineered and manufactured to serve you better and last longer than ever before. The proof is in the warranty... proof of quality unheard of a few years ago.

In fact, it was only two years ago that Ford Motor Company announced the 12-month, 12,000-mile passenger car warranty which became the industry standard as other manufacturers followed Ford's lead. At the same time, Lincoln Continental became the only American-built car warranted for two full years or 24,000 miles, whichever came first. Now, this warranty applies to all Ford-built cars, regardless of price. Why is this possible?

Actually, the new warranty is a natural outgrowth of the engineering leadership that has resulted in twice-a-year (or every 6,000-mile) passenger car maintenance. It goes hand-in-glove with such Ford-pioneered service savers as the elimination of the 1,000-mile inspection... 30,000- to 36,000-mile intervals between major lubrications, 6,000-mile intervals between oil changes and minor lubrications, self-adjusting brakes, aluminized mufflers, and longer-life electrical systems.

These features that save you time and money as you drive are a direct reflection of the total quality achievements of Ford Motor Company.

U. S. to Cut Los Alamos Apron Strings

By HAROLD R. WILLIAMS
LOS ALAMOS, N.M. (AP)—The federal government is preparing to cut the Los Alamos atomic apron strings.

But most of the 13,600 residents of this atomic city don't like the prospect and wish they could continue under the benevolent thumb of the Atomic Energy Commission.

A bill awaiting President Kennedy's signature provides for disposal of all Los Alamos property not directly connected with AEC projects. The action follows similar disposals at Oak Ridge, Tenn., and Richland, Wash.

Ramon Sanchez, 23, a gas station attendant, summed up Los Alamos community feeling: "This town really had it made. The AEC did everything for you—and to free. I hate to see it go."

The AEC does do everything for its dwellers from fixing a leaky faucet to repairing streets—and mowing lawns in some cases. The Zia Co., the AEC's giant housekeeper, does most of the chores.

Disposing of property in Los Alamos, which the AEC owns lock, stock and barrel, will not affect the Los Alamos scientific laboratory. Its research, projects and experiments continue with no change.

Another reason Los Alamos doesn't like the changeover is because of the big bite it will take out of the pocketbook.

With the AEC owning everything, there were no taxes other than personal because the federal government can't be taxed. Now with Los Alamos residents owning their homes and ground, taxes will make a bigger dent in the take home pay.

The AEC will sell and give away residences, businesses, even

Homemakers' Meet

On Sept. 25 the Homemakers HD Club met in the home of Mrs. David McKee. The meeting was opened with prayer by Mrs. Velma Collier. Mrs. Ernest Ridge, based her devotion "The Greatest Book," on John 4:39.

Members answered the roll call by telling something about their first year in school. Mrs. William Stephenson won the door prize. After the president conducted a short business, the clothing leader Mrs. Roscoe Bowden, presented "Your Wardrobe Dollars and Sense" for the program.

For refreshments cookies and cold drinks were served to 11 members. The next meeting Oct. 30, will be with Mrs. Archie Smith.

Bridge Club Meets

Mrs. Jud Martindale was hostess for a meeting of her bridge club on Sept. 25. Besides the club members, Miss Mary Roy Moses was also a guest and was also high scorer.

Mrs. George Frazier was second high, and the game prize went to Mrs. C. H. Stuart Jr. Late summer flowers decorated the home, and a dessert plate was served with coffee for refreshments.

Coming and Going

Mrs. Roy Stephenson has returned home from a visit in Ft. Worth, Tex., with Mrs. J. B. Laski.

Ed Aslin, Vic Cob, and Terrell Cornelius went to Camden Tuesday for a meeting with the Rotary Club there.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Baker of West Plains, Mo. have been visiting in Hope.

4 Million Chicks Are Started

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas producers started 4,000,000 broiler chicks during the week ended Sept. 22 — two per cent more than the previous week.

The Crop Reporting Service said of the total placements in the state, 3,487,000 chicks were hatched in Arkansas and 518,000 came from other states.

There were 123,000 broiler chicks shipped out of the state during the week, the report said.

The estimated total of 5,240,000 eggs set for broiler-type chicks in Arkansas during the week was four per cent above the previous week, the reporting service said.

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gerald Richard (Jerry) Dalrymple, All-America football player at Tulane University in 1930 and 1931, died Wednesday in a Little Rock hospital after an illness of several months. He was 65.

Dalrymple was a building contractor in New Orleans and had come to Little Rock several months ago to stay with his mother, Mrs. Lillie Dalrymple, during his illness.

Dalrymple played on some of Tulane's greatest teams. In 1930 the Green Wave lost only one game to Northwestern 14-0. In 1931 the only loss was to Southern California 21-12 in the Rose Bowl.

He was the school's first All-America player. He played under Coach Bernie Bierman.

Survivors include his widow; two sons, Gerald Dalrymple Jr. and Brent Dalrymple and one daughter, Sharon Dalrymple, all of New Orleans, and his mother.

Funeral will be at 11 a.m. Thursday at Griffin-Leggett Funeral Home in Little Rock. Burial also will be in Little Rock.

churches, schools and the police station.

Los Alamos has some 3,500 dwelling units, ranging from kitchenette apartments to single-family homes, the latter in the minority (only 34 per cent).

The person living in the house at the time of the sale will be given first chance to buy it. Storekeepers will get an opportunity to purchase their business buildings.

There are 45 stores. The total community facilities to be put up for sale are estimated to be worth $38 million.

The federal government will donate municipal facilities valued between $22 and $24 million. Most of these are churches, schools, parks, a hospital and county offices.

The proposed new law provides for spending $8.7 million in improvements, which will likely include a new courthouse, and $2 or $3 million in annual subsidy payments over a 10-year period.

Actual sale of the real estate is not expected to start before mid-1964. The Federal Housing Administration must appraise the homes, each one separately, and this isn't expected to be done until early 1964.

DOROTHY DIX

What's the Answer to This Mother-in-Law?

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: My husband and I get along perfectly. He is a hard worker and makes more than the average man. We've been married six months, have everything material we want including a new $5,000 mobile home which is our own "heaven on earth."

But we had to run off to get married. My mother-in-law got "sick" whenever he mentioned our plans. She went to bed and refused to eat and generally carried on. She's only seen me once since. Won't even speak to me.

Whenever my husband goes over, she tells him to pack his things and leave me. I'm 32 and have been married before; he's 28, an only child, and was never married before. She thinks he should have a younger wife.

Does the four-year difference in our ages matter that much, and would anyone of any age suit her? Also, before we were married I worked in a night club. She said that anyone who did that was "no good." I made an honest living, worked hard, and the people who knew me always had a word of praise for me.

My husband built his folks a beautiful new home with his own hands. I went with him on his days off while he did so and helped so that they could get settled. His mother then declared that all I wanted was this home and her son's money. Even when he signed the house over to her at my suggestion she still wasn't convinced.

When he wanted to make me the beneficiary of his life insurance, as I did with him, she had a fit; she is the present beneficiary of his policy and refused to let him take it from her.

This dissension between mother and son is such that I fear for our future if she doesn't act like a mother should. I haven't said anything to my husband but the worry has me going to the doctor and taking nerve pills. Can you offer any help? —Discouraged

Dear Discouraged: You may find this hard to believe but your in-law problem could be a lot worse. Think of the cases where a wife has to live under the same roof with her husband's family, or those where husband turns out to be a weak mama's boy.

At least you have your own place and a harmonious life with your husband even without benefit of family blessing.

As many brides learn, it's a rare mother-in-law who thinks her son's wife is "good enough." Some tactfully conceal this opinion. Others are outspoken. In an ideal world, the only yardstick a mother should apply to her son's wife is whether she has made him happy. Your mother-in-law, instead, has taken the unusual shocking step of urging her son to leave you.

Don't be trapped into fighting back. Never criticize, either; don't complain about the family snubs. Discount the sniping about your age. The four years difference counts for little one way or the other.

Keep your eyes fixed on your main goal — which is to continue to make your husband happy. After a while, mother-in-law may concede that you've qualified as a wife. But even she doesn't you will have given your marriage the firmest foundation possible.

Dear Helen: I'm 14 and in love with a boy the same age. We went together for three months when suddenly my parents quarrelled with his parents. Now his father and mother won't let me see him. I tried phoning and writing but they won't let me speak to him and keep his mail from him. Please help! I love him —Lonely Dear Lonely: You're not the first girl whose romance was

Business Was Theme of Conference

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—Almost any question-and-answer session with President Kennedy has some kind of bang in it. But Wednesday's, for business editors and publishers, hardly produced a bang.

Newsmen who cover the regular news conferences were barred from quizzing the President on Wednesday, although there was much they would have liked to ask about Cuba, Mississippi and other places. There was no television or radio broadcast.

This was strictly for business editors and their bosses and only they could ask questions. Naturally enough, they asked business questions.

And the President answered unwary by a family feud. Remember Romeo and Juliet?

There's a vital difference between their story and yours, Romeo, not Juliet, made the overtures. It is neither good taste nor good strategy for you to call or write this boy. If he felt as strongly as you do, he'd be the one making these efforts. Calm down. Maybe the adults will patch up their quarrel. If they don't, the age of 14 is hardly the time to give up hope of finding another heart-throb.

Dear Helen: I've been married five years. My husband is 51, I'm 46. I worked hard to get our home; pay the bills and have nothing left for myself.

He never takes me out, says I don't drink like his friends. He is apathetic about me and our home. I can't get him to do a thing around the house like painting or repairs.

Lately a woman has been calling him at home. He says he doesn't know anything about it but sometimes comes home with lipstick on him, and only recently got a bill from an out-of-town store for something I never bought.

I took him to my doctor, who said my husband needed help. His only answer is that nobody has to tell him what to do. Do I expect too much from him? That's what he says. —Help Wanted

Dear Help: Any wife who allows herself to be used as a doormat is doing neither herself, nor her marriage any good.

If you let your husband get away with such misbehavior in the first five years, what can you look forward to in later life? It's time you put your foot down —hard.

Tell him in no uncertain terms that if he doesn't stop running around with other women, knuckle down to his responsibilities, and seek the help the doctor says he should have, then you will seriously consider the marriage not worth saving.

A union between two people of your age need not necessarily be heaven on earth to survive, but neither should it be the exact opposite.

Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her care of this newspaper. Helpful leaflets available. Write for "Successful Marriage."

them pretty much in a business-like way but still in a way that gave a foretaste of some ideas he'll try to put across in this year's election campaigns.

Before anything was asked he admitted the economy was not in an ideal condition yet but said it had been moving under him toward fulfillment of a number of goals.

He said unemployment is still too high, this country's ability to produce isn't being used to its fullest and there is still economic distress in certain regions.

Ever since last spring when Kennedy angrily pushed the steel industry into calling off its sudden and unexpected price increase, relations between business and the Kennedy administration could hardly be described as happy.

So the business editors, or some of them, probably expected Kennedy to turn the conference into a kiss-and-make-up get-together. He didn't.

It was all pleasant enough, certainly it was polite. Kennedy drew laughs several times with his quips. And he did nothing to antagonize the men and women facing him.

But, when it was over, it was clear Kennedy hadn't tried to be cozy, either.

Right at the start one editor handed him an opportunity which Kennedy must have been hoping for: A chance to talk about relations between his administration and business.

He was asked about being sensitive to the "alleged" hostility of the business world. Kennedy's answer was like saying: I'm glad you asked. The frankness of his answer may have surprised his listeners.

He said there has been a traditional difference between Democratic administrations and most businessmen and the former haven't banked very heavily on the amount of political support they could expect from business.

Then he rebuked businessmen for failing to give him the kind of support he felt should have been forthcoming for his tax revision bill which Congress badly chewed up.

The White House had sponsored this conference of business editors and publishers just as in the past a number of times it has arranged conferences here for newspaper, magazine, television and radio people.

In such sessions a number of top government officials talk to the visitors and answer their questions. At the windup the President does the same.

This may provide these molders of public opinion with some insight into the administration's problems and thinking although hardly more so than they get every day from their Washington correspondents.

All this is part of the administration's efforts at public relations. It can hardly be considered entirely unselfish since it provides the administration with a chance to send the visitors home feeling more sympathetic if not more favorable.

Top Teams in National Race Appear Tired

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

This National League pennant race is taking on the look of a race between two tired turtles going uphill.

But if they aren't moving very fast, at least the finish line is in sight.

For all their speed and verve, Los Angeles' pace-setting Dodgers have been backing up. And with a big burst of drive and determination, San Francisco's second-place Giants have been standing still.

The petulant Houston Colts applied the latest stopper to the Dodgers with a rallying 3-0 victory Thursday night at Los Angeles. A few hours before, the St. Louis Cardinals broke in front with a commanding lead and held on for a 7-4 decision at San Francisco.

That left the Dodgers still two games in front of the Giants and the magic number at two—meaning any combination of Dodger wins and/or Giant losses totaling two in the remaining three games gives Los Angeles the flag. The two contenders now change partners, with the Cards moving into Los Angeles for the final three games of the season and the Colts going to San Francisco for the weekend.

Gene Oliver and Stan Musial spearheaded the Cards' against the Giants. Oliver warmed up with a double, then smacked a three-run homer that stood up as the clincher, while Musial collected five singles in five tries.

In the NL's only other game, Dennis Bennett fired a five-hitter as the sizzling Philadelphia Phils won for the 19th time in their last 24 games, 7-0 over Chicago.

The American League resumes competition today after taking Thursday off, night-hander Early Wynn of the Chicago White Sox, gunning for his 30th career victory, faces the champion Yankees at New York tonight; Los Angeles is at Cleveland for a two-night doubleheader; and Baltimore is at Minnesota and Kansas City at Detroit for day games. Washington and Boston are idle.

Even in defeat the Dodgers were heartened by the work of Sandy Koufax, their left-handed strikeout specialist, who is just rounding into form after a two-month layoff due to circulation trouble in the index finger of his pitching hand. He went five innings before he tired, set down the first 11 batters in order, struck out four and allowed three hits.

But the Dodgers' relief corps failed badly. The Colts hopped on Ed Roebuck and Larry Sherry for four hits and their four runs in the sixth, taking a 6-4 lead and after Los Angeles rallied for a tie in the bottom of the inning, Houston scrambled ahead again in the seventh against Ron Perranoski.

Umbrecht took over with the bases filled and none out in the sixth and wound up with his fourth victory in as many decisions.

The Cardinals lost little time taking charge against the Giants, rapping lefty Billy O'Dell for two runs in the first inning. Oliver's double plus rookie right hander Ray Washburn's single gave St. Louis another run in the fourth, then came the Cards' big fifth, climaxed by Oliver's big hit.

Washburn now is 12-9 while O'Dell, looking for his 20th victory, lost his 14th.

Wrigley Field's smallest crowd of the year, 617, watched Bennett, 22, deal the Cubs their 102nd loss and 14th shutout this season. Bennett struck out six and walked three, only Taylor and Roy Sievers collected three hits each for the Phillies and Clay Dalrymple homered.

Broyles Seems Pleased With Hog Workout

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—

The University of Arkansas Razorbacks showed a little hustle in their offense work during practice Thursday, and Coach Frank Broyles said he was pleased.

Broyles expressed discontent with the offensive showing of the Pioneers during their 34-7 walloping of Oklahoma State during the opener last Saturday.

"They had more hustle today and they've been hustling all week," he said.

Broyles has had the Hogs working primarily on pass defense this week, expecting Tulsa to fill the air with footballs as they did in their first-game defeat of Hardin-Simmons 39-6 two weeks ago.

Since then the Cowboys have been warming up for the Fayetteville, Ark. match Saturday.

The Hogs were to leave Fayetteville at noon today for Eureka Springs and spend the night there.

They are to be back on campus two hours before game time Saturday.

THE OCCUPATIONAL CLASS OF THE GUIDANCE DEPARTMENT of Lincoln High School in Washington visited the Star plant yesterday morning to get first hand knowledge on how to produce a newspaper. The 34 class members were accompanied by their instructor, Mrs. Evelyn Williamson. This view of the class was made in the newspaper's front office.

Bobkittens Overpower Camden 6-0

By VINCE FOSTER

Coach Billy Mitchell's Hope Bob Kittens overpowered the Camden Cubs 6-0 Thursday night at Hammons Stadium. The Kittens thus look avenge of a heartbreaking loss to the Cubs last season which spoiled an otherwise undefeated Hope season.

Although there was no scoring in the first half, the locals threatened twice and were inside the Camden 20 at the half-time buzzer. After a 13 and a 40 yard pass from Bobkitten QB Sammy Strong to IIB Bobby Samuels, the Kittens scored his right end and scampared for the final yardage for the lone score of the game. The attempted pass for the extra point failed, Hope held the important 6-0 lead. Behind Strong's passing to Ingram and Aslin the locals rolled to the Camden 11 midway in the final quarter, but lost the ball on downs there. Bobo Ball intercepted a Camden aerial on the Hope 45 to stop the final Cub threat.

Ball led the locals in rushing with 33, followed by Ingram with 25. Strong carried for 21 and Samuels for 9. The Hope offensive unit includes Strong, Ball, Samuels, Ingram, Aslin, Hughes, May, Balson, Moses, Duke and Lawrence. Powell, Lemley and White substituted in on defense.

Missile Guns to Be Sold Israeli
WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has agreed to sell Hawk anti-aircraft missiles to Israel to strengthen its defenses against the growing military capability of neighboring Arab states equipped with arms supplied by the Soviet Union.

The deal is expected to be completed soon and the United States plans to train Israeli operators for the missiles in this country.

Officials disclosed the agreement in principle Wednesday night and described the Hawk as a purely defensive weapon which will be provided to Israel on a straight sale basis, not involving U.S. military aid.

Egypt and Syria have been building up supplies of Soviet arms, including jet bombers, during the past two years or so. Recently, U.S. officials said, Iraq obtained short range anti-aircraft missiles from Moscow. Officials said this was the decisive event in Washington's decision to sell missiles to Israel.

Fordyce Lumber Deal May Be Off
PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—The Pine Bluff Commercial quoted a "reliable source" Wednesday as saying the Georgia-Pacific Corp., may no longer be the No. 1 prospective buyer of the Fordyce Lumber Co.

Georgia-Pacific, which purchased the Cressett Co. last July held a refusal agreement on the Fordyce company, but this apparently has expired.

The Pine Bluff newspaper said the prospective purchasers now being discussed included the United States Plywood Corp., International Paper Co., Koppers Co., and Potlatch Forest Industries.

The Fordyce company owns more than 160,000 acres of timberland in Calhoun, Dallas, Cleveland and Bradley counties. The firm, with annual sales of about $5 million, employs 425 persons in the manufacture of Arkansas soft pine lumber and oak flooring.

Bobcats Entertain Top District Foe Tonight
By VINCE FOSTER

The Hope Bobcats and the Malvern Leopards will stage a showdown for the Region 4AA lead tonight at Hammons Stadium. Presently the Leopards hold the district lead with two wins against no losses, and the undefeated Bobcats and Camden are second with one win each. A victory by the Cats will put them out front, since Camden has a non-conference game this week.

The Malvern eleven opened the season to whip 4AA do-or-die Magnolia 20-0, and then the Leopards slipped by Crosslet 7-6 the following week. However, Catholic High stopped their streak as the Rockets outscored Malvern 13-6 last Friday.

The strong winged T attack of the Leopards is spearheaded by All District returnee Jim Cole, a 175 pound fullback who provides the power, and Morton Wheatley, a small, tough speedster who excels in the speed department.

The Malvern line is led by husky tackles Jim Fitzhugh at 195 pounds and Mike Kent at 174 pounds.

The heavy Bobcat defense have their work cut out for them tonight, and they will have to better last week's efforts at Smackover. If Malvern gets the game lead at anytime, they may not give it up as easily as the Bucks did.

All week the Leopards have been readying themselves for the Cats offensive attack, especially David Porterfield, the Cat's leading yard gainer. Can the Bobcats overcome the stubborn Malvern defense, and can the big Hope defensive line retain the power of Leopard FB Cole and speedster Wheatley? On these important questions rests the outcome of this important district game.

Coach John Pierce assures Hope players and fans that Malvern will most certainly be ready, pawing the ground and champing at the bits. Come out to Hammons Stadium tonight and see if the undefeated Bobcats are ready, willing and able to take the district lead.

Uneasy Truce on Money Markets
By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—The rising price of silver and the premium price commanded by gold tends today to accent the uneasy truce in the world's money markets.

The central banks have worked out a scheme to guard against raids on various currencies, including the U.S. dollar, by speculators or by investors who develop twinges of doubt of currency values.

The price changes in the precious metals emphasize the need for and the problems besetting such an arrangement.

The pressure on silver prices is caused by rising industrial use, especially accentuated in the electronics and space age, rather than by currency demand. But silver nevertheless is part of the world's monetary system—either in pocket coins or in reserves backing paper money in large sections of the world. Silver backs some of the small bills in your billfold.

Gold reserves are guarded by central banks in most important financial nations. And no scheme to do away with this has caught on as yet.

Such reserves are back of much of the U.S. paper money. And the rise in the price of gold in the free market—$35.115 an ounce in London Thursday, compared to the official $35 U.S. Treasury price—in a way is a measure of many investors' evaluation, right or wrongly of the American financial situation at the moment.

That the price is lower than a short time back is all to the good for our side.

The rapid and continuing rise of the price of silver—Thursday it was $1.21 an ounce in London—from the 91¢ cents an ounce at the end of November 1961 also doesn't yet tempt any hoarding of silver coins.

The Treasury says the price would have to reach $1.29 an ounce before the silver content of the dollar would be worth extracting for itself alone.

But the steady climb in silver's price affects many manufacturers, especially the big users in electronics and photography. And in time it could send the cost of consumer items such as jewelry, flatware and films higher.

Some makers of silver alloys used by manufacturers have raised prices in line with the jump in metal quotations. In general, makers of consumer items are still holding the price line, waiting to see if the metal can stick at the higher level. It might not, if speculators decided to cash in their holdings.

For the money managers the problems raised by rising prices of silver or gold, especially the latter, center on the temptation to foreign speculators or investors to turn in their dollar holdings for metal.

And as dollars pile up in foreign central banks there is always the urge to build up their own gold reserves by exchanging their dollars for metal. In spite of the continuing piling up of excess dollars abroad this year, Washington has been able to ward off any raids that would weaken the dollar in international exchange.

When to Fish or Hunt Solunar Tables
By John Alden Knight

The schedule of Solunar period as printed below, has been taken from John Alden Knight's Solunar Tables. Plan your days so that you will be fishing in good territory or hunting in good cover during these times, if you wish to find the best sport that each day has to offer.

The Major periods are shown in bold face type. These begin at the time shown and last for an hour and a half or two hours thereafter. The minor periods, shown in regular type, are of somewhat shorter duration.

Same Old Story From Bear Bryant

By BOB GREEN

Associated Press Sports Writer

Paul Bryant is a large, dour man whose size and disposition won him the nickname "Bear." He has been known to belittle the name, however, and smile and even say nice things about his football team.

But not at this time of the year. Only when it's all wrapped up for the season. So it's no great surprise that he is less than enthusiastic—at least outwardly—about Alabama's chances as he sends his Crimson Tide against Tulane tonight.

A sample quote from the Bear: "Tulane's going to knock off some people this year, and it'll probably be us."

It could be he's right, but the odds are long against it. For instance, Alabama is the defending national champion and ranked No. 1 in the country on the basis of its 35-0 rout of Georgia in each team's opener last week. Tulane, coming off a 2-8 season last year, lost its opener to Stanford 6-3.

Virginia Military visits Richmond in the only other major game tonight.
